The Board of Managers Determines Our Program

With the signing of the Deed of Trust, Milton S. Hershey entrusted his boys to the Board of Managers. Major decisions pertaining to the School are made by these men. Concern and dedication to Milton Hershey boys are evident in the programs they initiate.

A Tribute to a Member of the Board

Milton Hershey School is indebted to Gilbert Nurick for his services as legal counselor over the past 35 years, which culminated in his membership on the Board of Managers. Beyond his professional contributions, reflecting great wisdom, he has been an ardent supporter of the philosophy and principles held by our school founders, and has assisted diligently in the perpetuation of the ideals of the School.

Many honors have been conferred upon Mr. Nurick during his long and fruitful life. He is held in high esteem by those of Milton Hershey School who have been privileged to know him.

Mr. Nurick retired from his official duties with the School on December 1, 1971. As we express appreciation for his work and personal devotion, we extend best wishes for many happy years of retirement with a continuing interest in the Milton Hershey School.

Our Educational Program Is Carefully Supervised

Milton Hershey School provides excellent educational opportunities at Senior Hall, Catherine Hall, and Memorial Hall. In addition to educational facilities, each school furnishes students with special and health services, dining facilities, counselling, and physical activities. Instruction in trades, business, and liberal arts is abundantly available through a highly qualified faculty and is supervised by administrators whose abilities and interests in the school are exceptional. Other major concerns of the administrators lie in curriculum improvements, scheduling, summer school, acquisition of supplies and modern teaching aids, orientation of personnel, and review of student and departmental reports.

Our well-trained Student Personnel staff is a great asset in molding the life of home boys. They guide the boys from the time they enter Milton Hershey School to the day they leave to further their education or begin work in a vocation. The increasing number of students attending technical schools or colleges has added to the work of the college placement director who aids students in correspondence with colleges and arranges for College Board tests and college interviews. The staff maintains contact with alumni and aids them in ways the School can help.

As each student enters Milton Hershey School and while he is here, he is faced with the problems of adjusting to life in student homes with other boys his age and with houseparents. Students frequently find problems that they can not cope with and must seek help. With the trained and experienced counselling staff, problems and misunderstandings are effectively handled. The counselors' role is important in that the morale of each boy is the basis for many of his actions and how each student develops is dependent upon his emotional stability.

Added responsibility comes with the construction and renovation of various buildings and the landscaping of campus grounds.

In recent years the Milton Hershey Educational Association, whose purpose is to foster professional spirit among teachers and to provide for social activities, has been increasingly active and productive. Some outstanding achievements are the establishment of a fund from which an annual award is made to an outstanding senior who plans to go into education; career night, during which students have an opportunity to meet and talk to professional people; and a blood bank program, to which a large part of the faculty and houseparent staff are contributors each year.

They Served with Distinction

Phyllis E. Shuler

As an individual with avid interest in boys and teaching, Mrs. Shuler has proven to be a great asset in providing a sound foundation to young boys. Her years of service to Milton Hershey include six prior to 1951 and from 1951 to the present. She pursued study at Shippensburg State Teachers College, University of Rochester, and the University of Rhode Island. During her many years with us, she taught dramatics, sixth grade, and primarily third grade. Her success in educating young boys has been invaluable to the school; for this we pay tribute to Phyllis E. Shuler.

After twenty-five years of extensive dedication to Milton Hershey School, William Behney Buser retires. His formal education began in Hummelstown and continued to a B.A. from Columbia University. As an invaluable instructor, coach, and athletic director, he came to us with experience in coaching, instructing, and public service. He has found that his work with boys through athletics and in class and the observation of personal growth in boys as they mature have been his most outstanding experiences. We also have found Mr. Buser to be a great part of our lives.

William Behney Buser

William Grove, Harold Reichard, and Miss Lynette Waller provide the necessary background and guidance for advancement and experience through the Brown and Gold Band, Handbell Ringers and Choir Boys, and the Fifth and Sixth Grade Choir respectively. Not only fundamentals but also appreciation for music is built into the character of Intermediate boys in the music program.

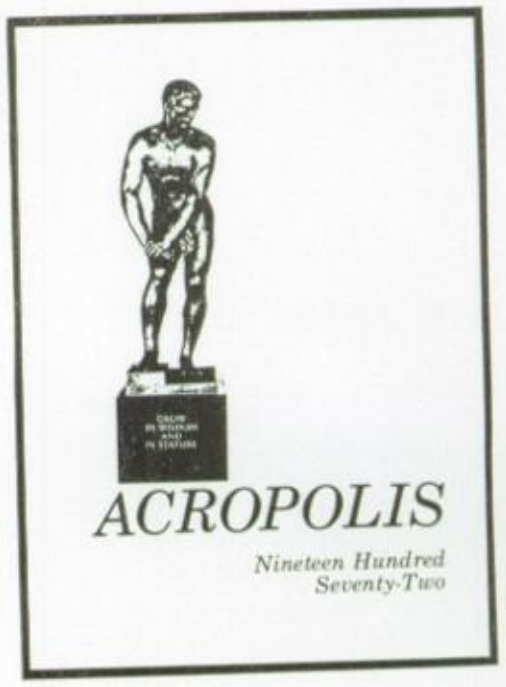
Yearbook Planning Extends over Many Seasons

In keeping with the ideals of good yearbook production, the ACROPOLIS staff has the challenge of creating an accurate history of the school year, a memory book, promoting school morale, providing training in journalism, and producing a public relations items simultaneously. With this in mind, the staff and advisers spend countless hours in preparation as well as in production.

The features of the 1972 ACROPOLIS include the sign of zodiac as a unifying symbol, a chronological approach to organization of activities without divider pages, a new cover design, and an interesting senior layout. Candid shots of seasonal activities and summer school, narrative headlines, houseparents of every division, inclusion of gymnastics, hockey, and Catherine Hall activities and use of montage arrangements are other innovations.



Spartan Magazine Maintains High Standards

The news magazine, published entirely by the students of Milton Hershey School, is one of the outstanding literary works of its class. THE SPARTAN has won numerous awards from the Columbia Press Association and last year achieved a Medalist rating, the highest possible recognition, at the annual convention held at Columbia University.

THE SPARTAN is printed six times a year under the titles: Fall, Christmas, Literary, Spring, Alumni, and Graduation. Issues are composed of articles, editorials, essays, features, and sports written by students along with various illustrations to add to attractiveness. The experience in editorial, layout, and production is practical and beneficial to staff members. Its subscribers, students, school personnel, sponsors, alumni, and friends find its contents refreshing and informative.

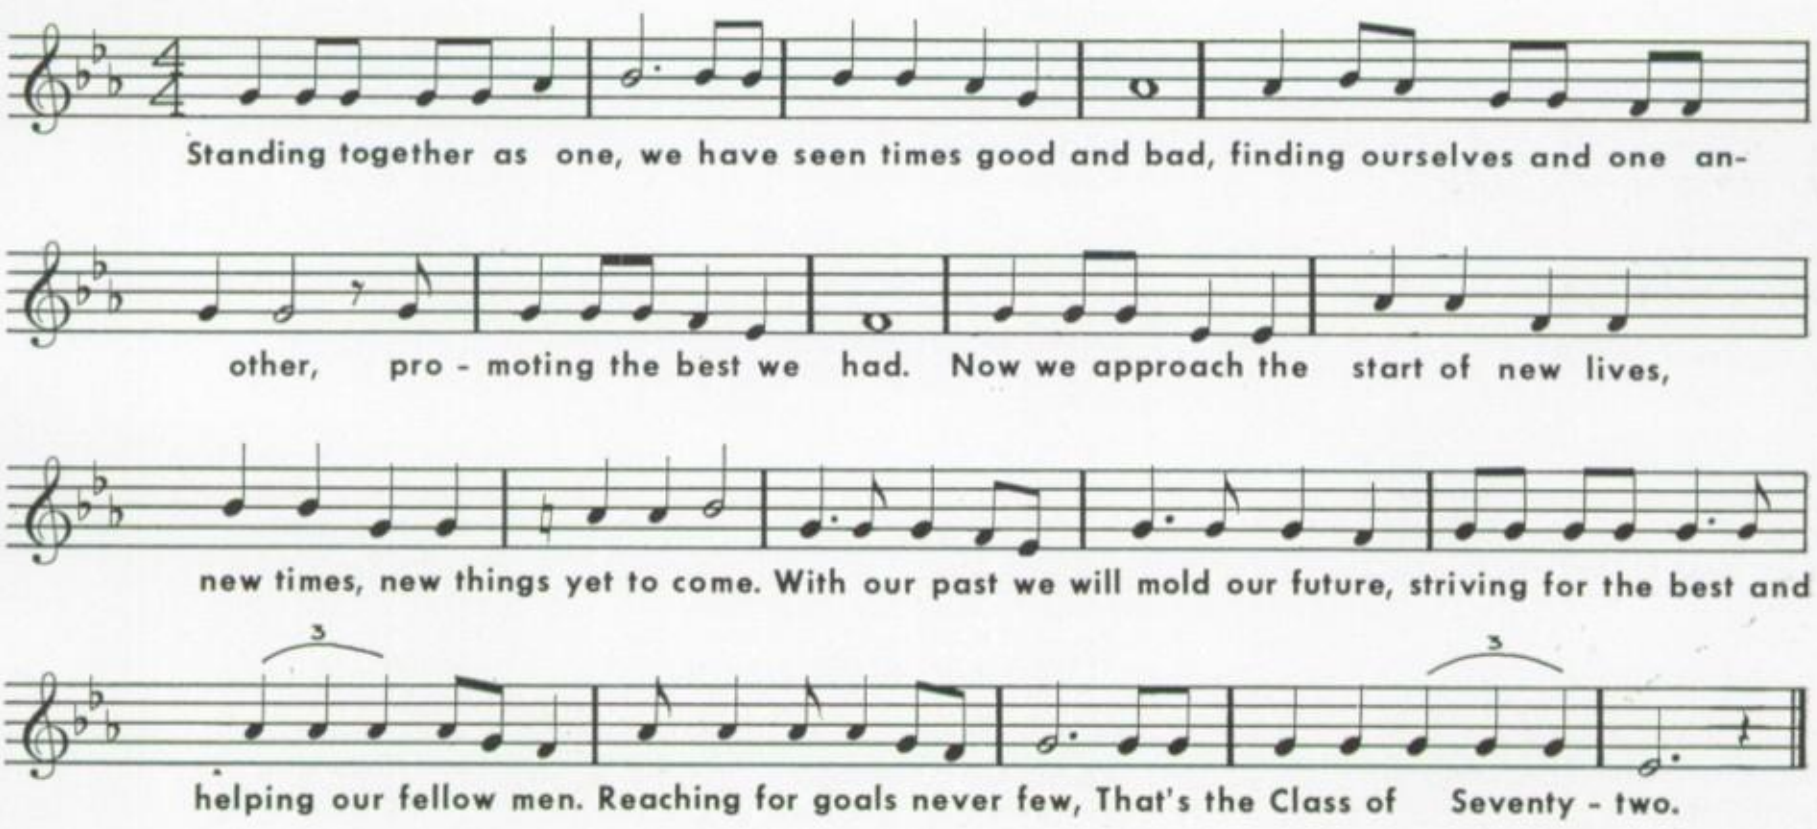
The Senior Dances We'll Always Remember

19 72

Music and Lyrics
by Philip Norris

CLASS SONG



Standing together as one, we have seen times good and bad, finding ourselves and one another, pro - moting the best we had. Now we approach the start of new lives, new times, new things yet to come. With our past we will mold our future, striving for the best and helping our fellow men. Reaching for goals never few, That's the Class of Seventy - two.

CLASS COLORS

Brown and Gold

CLASS FLOWER

Yellow Rose

CLASS MOTTO

Look not mournfully into the past;
it comes not back again.
Wisely improve the present; it is thine.
Go forth to meet the shadowy future without fear and with a manly heart!

--Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

John Cook coached the varsity basketball squad to a winning season of 15-7. This year's team had the coveted ability to win close games. Eight of fifteen games were victories by five of fewer points, including two wins in two overtime contests.

Kevin Stroupe, Ralph Tomassi, and Jack Mulligan were elected as tri-captains for the '71-'72 season.

This year's Larry Hollingshead Memorial Trophy for outstanding qualities of sportmanship in basketball was awarded to senior Kevin Stroupe.

Coach Cook is optimistic about next year's prospects. Three returning starters along with two players from the reserve unit will compose next year's starting five. The success of next season will depend upon finding good ballhandlers.

JV Basketball Provides Varsity Material

J.V. BASKETBALL TEAM-First Row: T. Zook, N. Ramsey, L. Paxton, J. Finley, B. Caroll, M. McTear, Coach Larry E. Casebeer. Second Row: J. Small, A. Baxter, B. Monts, M. Wright, J. Hightower, J. Senser, G. Hall.

With an even win-loss record, the junior varsity squad characteristically improved steadily as the season progressed. Eight of nine games were lost by five or fewer points because of inexperience under pressure. With only one veteran and twelve sophomores, the team had outstanding players who are potential varsity candidates. All were outstanding in various areas in spite of the inconsistencies throughout the season.
